Deed for LANDATA® Conditions of Use

LANDATA®'s Land Index is a vital tool for the efficient operation of the conveyancing and title searching industries. It is clearly impacted by the requirements of the privacy legislation. To guard against possible misuse of the information obtained from the Land Index, a deed of use is required by your provider on the behalf of LANDATA®.

All LANDATA® clients and the clients of LANDATA®'s on-line brokers who require Land Index search functions need to enter into a deed.

You need to sign the deed to get access to the LANDATA® Land Index search functions, once you have signed the deed, please return the deed to your provider. The aim is to ensure that industry can operate effectively, whilst no inappropriate use of the facility occurs.

The signatory of the deed must be the person in the organisation who is authorised to enter into contracts on behalf of that organisation. They must also ensure that users within that organisation adhere to the conditions of the deed.

LANDATA® and LANDATA®'s on-line brokers will maintain:

- a register of deeds for their respective customers;
- confidentiality of the deeds, but will release details of the users if required by law; and
- an audit trail of transactions for an extended period, and will release details of the users of a particular search, if required to do so by law, in the case of a name search, the subject of the search.

Please consider your need for access to the LANDATA® Land Index search functions and review the provisions of the deed before executing.

Yours sincerely

Anne-Maree Snelling
Manager LANDATA®
